A newly built two-bedroom villa situated on the old road from Magazia to Gaios and commanding good views over the west coast of Paxos to the sea beyond, Villa Rosemary is the perfect place for a tranquil holiday for two or four. Within walking distance of tavernas and an easy drive to all three of Paxos's picturesque coastal villages, it offers airy modern accommodation in a secluded inland setting. The terraces and pool area provide a quiet arena for al fresco drinks and meals throughout the day and, when evening comes, for enjoying the breathtaking views of the western sky.
